

Stars sing for charity fund-raiser

SEVENTIES singing sensations Leo Sayer and Glenn Shorrock will turn back the clock for this year's Jewish House fund-raising dinner.

The two singers have been announced to headline the December 1 event.

They will perform their respective hits You Make Me Feel Like Dancing and Reminiscing at the Sofitel Sydney Wentworth.

The pair will be joined at the event by Ilan Kidron, from indie pop band The Potbelleez.

Last year's event was headlined by Jimmy Barnes.

More than 500 people are expected to attend this year's fundraiser for the Bondi-based charity, which provides crisis help and intervention to thousands of people each year who are suffering from alcoholism, depression and the effects of unemployment.

Jewish House chief executive Rabbi Mendel Kastel said the event was the highlight of his year.

Appeal: The Potbelleez' Ilan Kidron, Rabbi Mendel Kastel and singer Leo Sayer